

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I met Miss Eva Pillossof for the first time back at the school I used to study at before which is a private school that has always been known in our city (Sofia) for its high level of education. She was my teacher for two years. I can honestly say that the first time I saw her I was totally taken aback by the way she entered the room with such a purposeful look. Back then she was teaching us Chemistry in English which at the time seemed to me like an almost impossible thing to comprehend. Surprisingly, not only that I understood the subject but I also became extremely interested in its content. The reason everyone in the class room started paying attention is because Eva explained everything in a really creative and useful way, a way that helped me remember things until now, 4 years later. What I appreciate the most about Eva's personality is that she is confident, determined and curious about all kinds of topics. She is a really rare type of teacher and person that I had the luck to meet.
